

Imagine Peace

A YEAR OF GIFTING

...creating peace one person at a time

Poetry challenges you to see life in a different way. Art inspires you to capture a moment with color and clarity. Collaboration harmonizes the gifts of poetry and art into a symphony of imagination, unveiling the meaning of life in a new way. May these poems capture a moment, may these images bring clarity and color to your life, may the charitable opportunities open your heart to share and understand.

As you explore these book sections, you will be taken on a journey of peace:

- Soaring Above Peace
- Enlightened by Peace
- Peace Purifies Murky Waters
- Peace Reflections
- Peace After Heartbreak
- Peace Beyond the Shadows
- Standing in Peace
- Imagining Peace
- Peace Collaboration

This book highlights charities across the globe and inspires the Five Cs: Compassion, Communion, Collaboration, Community, and Connection.

"This book represents my entire life purpose of guiding others gently, yet devotedly, into a more loving, compassionate and peaceful way."

Aleta Antoinette

"If this book has found its way into your presence, know that your soul is conveying you a special message. There are no coincidences. This book's poems are the next link to helping unravel the mystery known as you. And wow, your soul really took care of you this time!"

Tom LaRotonda,
Author

Allow the words and the intentions embeded within each poem to spread your wings of love and unity into the world.

Please join me and others on a journey of emotions, dreams, and imaginings as you discover ways to discover the dark and light inside of you.

*Through it all,
you
can choose peace.*

...peace transforms

“We met Aleta in 2004 as she established the Imagine Peace Foundation. She honored John’s life and work with a poem that he cherished.”

Anna McConnell, wife of author
John McConnell,
founder of Earth Day, 1970

Proceeds from the sales of the book will go to support the creation of an Imagine PeaceMobile to educate the community and provide tools to create a more peace-filled world.

ALETA ANTOINETTE

Founder of Imagine
Peace Foundation

Aleta's mission is to be a peace warrior by using creativity, imagination, gifts, and commitment with gratitude to bring forth a more peaceful world.

Committed to her dream of generating tranquility for humans around the world, Aleta established the Imagine Peace Foundation. Her goals are to build a center where visitors explore the energy of peace, and to expand it with a PeaceMobile as a traveling exhibit of amity.

Aleta's blog, "A Year of Gifting" recognizes various nonprofits to assist donors with a proper match to a cause. As an award-winning Realtor, Aleta hosts seminars, and sponsors community events in honor of people and their pets. Her "Homes That Give" program makes donations to charities based on a portion of her sales commission at closings.

Inspired by the giving legacies of her grandmother and father, Aleta believes that supporting others who desire to create peace results in multiple rewards such as compassion, unity, freedom, joy, surprise, wonder, awe, and love. As humanity seeks more peace, Aleta leads the way.
